

Two Racing Balloons Landed in Ulster County

Captain Hill of Army No. 2 Bag Lands on Julius Forstman Estate In Frost Valley and Captain Flood of Army No. 1 Bag Lands In Vernooij Kill Camp, Wawarsing—Freakish Atmospheric Conditions.

Two of the twelve balloons in the national elimination races which started from Pitt Stadium, Pittsburgh, Saturday evening at 6 o'clock, landed in Ulster county. The afternoon two of the balloons were still in the air.

Captain E. W. Hill, pilot of the Army No. 2 bag, landed at Frost Valley in the town of Denning, near the Julius Forstman estate. The balloon landed in one of the small trees on the estate Sunday evening. Neither the pilot nor his companion, Lieutenant Robert Heald of Danville, Ill., was injured.

The wrecked bag was removed from the premises this morning. He made 270 miles.

Army No. 1 balloon, Captain W. Flood, pilot, landed in Wawarsing Sunday night. He made 270 miles. The landing was made on the Vernooij Kill Camp, the estate of the late Elizabeth Day, at 5:35 o'clock. Neither the captain nor the pilot was injured. Sunday evening they visited the Wawarsing station and made plans for the shipping of the balloon to New York city.

Freakish Air Conditions.

Freakish atmospheric conditions were said to have been responsible for the short distance covered. It was reported that had been caught in the vortex of a circular movement of air and had spent the night virtually traveling in a circle.

Nine bags were reported down Sunday evening, the greatest distance at that time being covered by the T. Orman who brought his bag down to earth at Keeseville, N. Y., after traveling 405 miles.

This afternoon the Navy No. 1 bag was reported down in the vicinity of Montreal, Canada.

Victory in the race rode this afternoon between the bags representing the Detroit Balloon Club and the Detroit Times, reports from which were being awaited.

Hughes, Jr., for Solicitor General

Former Secretary of State Appointed to Most Arduous Position in Department of Justice.

Washington, May 6 (AP).—The appointment of Charles Evans Hughes, Jr., as solicitor general, was announced today at the White House.

President Hoover's selection was a surprise to political Washington, as Mr. Hughes' name never had been mentioned in connection with the post of attorney general on March 4.

Mr. Hughes is the son of Charles Evans Hughes, former secretary of state, a friend of the president and one of those upon whom Mr. Hoover has leaned for advice both during the pre-inauguration period and since he entered the White House.

The new solicitor general is connected with the law firm of Hughes, Glavin, Schurman and Dwight of New York city. He is a graduate of Cornell University and the Harvard Law School.

For some time Mr. Hughes has been moderately active in New York politics. He was sponsored for the nomination by the New York State Bar Association committee set up by President Hoover.

The solicitor generalship is the first of the important posts in the department of justice to be filled by a president since his inauguration.

The position of solicitor general of the United States is considered the most arduous in the department of justice. The solicitor general prepares briefs for all government cases that are presented to the supreme court, reviews the briefs and attends to all the legal business of the government.

The new solicitor general was admitted to practice before the supreme court in 1920, and has appeared before the highest tribunal several times, generally to assist his father.

4,000 Patients at Insane Asylum Terrified by Fire

Fourteen Hundred Men Removed to Safety From Burning Wing of New Jersey State Hospital, Clad Only in Night Clothes—Quick Work by Attendants Prevents Injury.

Morrisstown, N. J., May 6 (AP).—Four thousand patients at the New Jersey State Hospital for the Insane at Greystone, near Morris Plains, were terrified by a fire that destroyed much of the main building early today.

From the right wing, which was destroyed, 1,400 men were removed to safety. For a time it seemed as if much more of the institution would be destroyed and plans were made to move 1,000 women in an adjoining wing. The men were put in sections remote from the fire.

Starting in the cupola, the fire ate its way down to the fifth story of the right wing before it was discovered. Quick work on the part of the institution's fire department and the attendants, doctors and nurses prevented injury to any of the inmates in the danger zone. They were marched in orderly fashion to remote sections of the building, although many of them, not realizing the danger they were in, were moved with difficulty. A few yelled in frenzy but were easily controlled by guards, who marched them, clad in nothing but their night clothes, out of the burning wing.

Dr. Marcus Curry, superintendent of the hospital, estimated the damage at $1,000,000.

Four of the patients who escaped while the fire was in progress, had been brought back to the institution today.

Seize Property Of Berlin Reds

Berlin, May 6 (AP).—The problem of Communist disorders for the German government shifted today from the directly active to the political stage.

The streets of Neukölln and Wedding presented a fully normal appearance this morning, with women going to market and traffic uninterrupted. Very few police were in evidence.

But the tranquillity seemed precarious and the end of hostilities only a truce.

The supreme authorities of the Reich have asserted their power by declaring the principal Communist organization dissolved and their property forfeit.

A police communiqué this morning which withdrew the emergency restriction in Neukölln and Wedding, including the curfew law concluded with the grave announcement that "in execution of orders of the Prussian minister of the interior suppressing the Red-front organizations, the police today seized the headquarters, offices, equipment, and bank accounts of the said organization."

The Red-front organizations are the pride of the German Communist party and its most active and militant sections. The "fighters of the Red-front" are largely recruited from former soldiers of the German army and are armed and disciplined like an army.

Two Appointed On School Board

Fred J. Walter of Spring Street and Mrs. Vincent A. Gorman of Albany Avenue Appointed Members of Board of Education.

Fred J. Walter of Spring street, and Mrs. Vincent A. Gorman of Albany avenue have been appointed members of the board of education by Mayor E. J. Dempsey to succeed Mrs. Thomas Hayes and Mrs. Everett Fowler, whose terms had expired.

Mr. Walter is connected with the Hitebrant Dry Dock Company at South Rondout, while Mrs. Gorman is the wife of the proprietor of the Rose & Gorman department store on North Front street.

Introduce Tariff Bill Tuesday.

Washington, May 6 (AP).—Chairman Hawley of the House Ways and Means Committee announced today the new tariff revision measure in all probability would be introduced in the house as soon as it convenes tomorrow.

Divorce Cases In Special Term

Testimony Given Before Judge McNamee in Two Ulster County Matrimonial Actions—One Divorce Granted, One Case Continued.

Testimony was taken Saturday before Supreme Court Judge McNamee in a divorce action brought by Mrs. Jason K. Trowbridge against her husband. The parties were married in 1917 at Lyonsville. Mrs. Trowbridge testified that her husband was employed as a steam shovel operator at Fort Ticonderoga and earned about $175 a month. Since he left about two years ago she has not seen him. Mrs. Della O'Neil, who conducts a rooming house in New York city, testified that from January, 1927, until some time in April Trowbridge had been at her home in New York city residing with a Mrs. Georgia Terwilliger whom he called "wifey," and that Mrs. Terwilliger introduced Trowbridge as her husband. Mrs. O'Neil said Mrs. Terwilliger's husband had died after they had been married four months and she had roomed at the O'Neil apartment some time prior to Trowbridge's coming.

A. J. Cook appeared for Mrs. Trowbridge and although the defendant did not appear at the trial he was represented by Thomas F. Coughlin. The application for divorce was granted and plaintiff was awarded custody of the child and given $80 a month alimony.

Chichester Case Heard.

Testimony was also taken in an action for divorce brought by Edwin DeWitt of Chichester against his wife, Lillian DeWitt. Parties were married at Chichester on July 14, 1906. One witness testified that Mrs. DeWitt had resided for two years at Gilboa with William Lasher and that she was introduced as Mrs. Lasher. The family consisted of Mrs. Lasher and Mrs. DeWitt, who was known as Mrs. Lasher, and a child about five years old. They have since moved from Gilboa. LeRoy Lounsbury, who appeared for Mr. DeWitt, asked for an adjournment in order to produce other witnesses who will testify as to the woman who resided with Mrs. Lasher being Mrs. DeWitt. He said he would be able to produce witnesses who had known Mrs. DeWitt a number of years. An adjournment was taken to the next regular special term at Hudson on the third Saturday of May.

BROCKTON, MASS., WANTS SENATOR HEFLIN ARRESTED.

Brockton, Mass., May 6 (AP).—The arrest of Senator J. Thomas Hefflin of Alabama on a charge of violating a city ordinance was asked today by Howard R. Coleman, member of the city council.

Coleman has filed his request for a warrant for the Senator's arrest with the city clerk in prescribed form and it will be presented to the city council for action tonight.

It is charged by Coleman that Hefflin, during his recent visit here, delivered a public address without having obtained a permit. The Senator has since raised his voice in protest against bottle throwing, for which he was the target.

Hoover Gives Praise to Smith

President Calls His Late Political Opponent a Distinguished American and Great Public Servant As Smith Receives University of Notre Dame Medal.

New York, May 6 (AP).—President Hoover regards Alfred E. Smith, his Democratic opponent in the recent national campaign, as a distinguished American and a great public servant.

The president's estimate of Mr. Smith was expressed in a letter read last night at the presentation of the Laetare medal, the annual award of the University of Notre Dame to the American lay Catholic "who in his particular field of endeavor has achieved such distinction as reflects glory upon the Catholic faith."

The letter, addressed to the Rev. Charles L. O'Donnell, president of Notre Dame, said:

"I am glad you have given me the opportunity to join in congratulations to Governor Smith for the honor which you confer upon so distinguished an American and to the university for its public spirit in honoring so great a public servant."

The tribute paid by the president to the man over whom he won the presidency is the first paid by Mr. Hoover since he entered the White House. During the campaign Mr. Hoover avoided any mention of Mr. Smith. They have met but once since the election. That was while both were on a holiday in Florida before Mr. Hoover's inauguration.

Cardinal Hayes, who presided at the presentation ceremonies in the Hotel Plaza before a distinguished gathering, pinned the medal on Mr. Smith's lapel.

In his speech of acceptance Mr. Smith referred to the president's letter, saying:

"I am very thankful to the President of the United States for his kind note of greeting."

Dr. O'Donnell in his presentation speech said the soundness and sincerity of Mr. Smith's Catholic faith stood out as the moving force and inspiration of what the former governor had accomplished.

Hit His Wife Cost Salem $25

Albert Salem of 45 Lindsay avenue, who was arrested last week on complaint of his wife, who charged her husband with assault in the third degree in striking her in the face with his fist, was found guilty in police court this morning, and Judge Shufeldt imposed a fine of $25.

May Adopt Reparations Plan

Neither France nor Belgium Desirous of Antagonizing American Moneyed Interests and Some Sort of Settlement Is Expected to Be Evolved.

Paris, May 6 (AP).—There was growing conviction in circles close to the conference of experts on reparations today that some sort of settlement would be evolved from negotiations commencing today on the American proposals agreed to by the German delegation.

The settlement, if it materializes, will come hard and not without considerable persuasion, and perhaps tactful pressure, but the belief was growing that the Owen D. Young plan tentatively accepted Saturday by Dr. Hjalmar Schacht, German spokesman, represented the American financial world.

Neither France nor Belgium, upon whom the final decision of acceptance or rejection seemed to rest today, are desirous, it was pointed out, of antagonizing the American moneyed interests.

The actual figures of Mr. Young's proposals to Dr. Schacht—tentatively agreed to also by Great Britain and Japan—have not been made available, and estimates here calculated the reduction in payments to France which they would involve at from seven to fifteen billion francs ($250,000,000 to $600,000,000 present value).

The request for this concession has become the object of increasing attack from those who feel France already has conceded more than her share. It is pointedly asked everywhere why the United States does not do a little reducing in claims herself.

Figuring the Sacrifice.

The exact importance of the sacrifice which the Allies are called upon to make in the proposed compromise can be figured only when the amounts and conditions are known.

According to the best information, however, it would amount for France to something like 2,500,000,000 gold marks or 15,000,000,000 francs (approximately $600,000,000). This sacrifice was said in authoritative French circles to be impossible for any government to approve.

It also was said in the press that France did not ask for the conference and accepted it as one step in applying the "Spirit of Locarno" to Franco-German relations. Another step was said to be the anticipated evacuation of the Rhineland and it was supposed in France that in the reparations settlement would be found compensation for the final early liberation of German territory from occupation. Part of the press is quite bitter over the present situation.

Fall's Ranch Up In Foreclosure Sale

Famous Ranch of Former Secretary of Interior, Which Figured in Naval Oil Scandals, Offered Under Foreclosure of Mortgage Held by Son-in-Law's Estate.

Beverly Hills, Cal., May 6 (AP).—Announcement that the Three Rivers, N. M., ranch of Albert B. Fall, former secretary of the interior, would be sold at auction today by the sheriff at Alamogordo, N. M., in a mortgage foreclosure action and that representatives of Edward L. Doheny, oil magnate, planned to buy it for $200,000 was made here by Robert Sands, personal secretary to the petroleum operator.

Sands declared the famous ranch, which figured in the naval oil reserve leasing scandals, had been estimated worth $500,000 and that it was to be sold to satisfy a loan of $170,000. The M. D. Thatcher Estate of Pueblo, Col., holds a first mortgage for that amount and Sands declared that Doheny held a second mortgage by reason of the $100,000 "loan" made to Fall by the oil magnate shortly before the interior secretary leased the Elk Hills, Calif., naval oil reserve to a Doheny company.

The fate of the big ranch thus was to be decided as preparations were being made in Washington to execute the jail sentence imposed upon Harry F. Sinclair, central figure in the oil lease scandals.

The 700,000-acre ranch figured not only in the dealings between Fall and Doheny but also between Fall and Sinclair, according to the testimony of the latter before a jury in Washington a year ago. Sinclair then testified he had purchased a one-third interest in the property for $233,000 in Liberty bonds. He declared he gave the bonds to Fall a few days before the interior secretary gave him a lease to the Teapot Dome Naval Oil Reserve in Wyoming.

Sands declared the ranch recently had been surveyed for mineral and oil possibilities.

M. D. Thatcher, whose estate holds the first mortgage, was a son-in-law of Fall.

Riparian Rights At Saugerties Determined; New Dam Will Be Built

Agreement Reached by the Martin Cantine Company and the Diamond Mills Paper Company Relating to Water Rights, Construction of New Dam and Its Maintenance—Probable That Waters Impounded Will Be Kept At High Level.

By an agreement entered into between Martin Cantine, president of The Martin Cantine Company, and Ralph H. Thompson, president of the Diamond Mills Paper Company, Inc., of Saugerties, the rights of each party to use the waters of the Esopus creek at the site of Barclay Dam in the village of Saugerties have been determined. A copy of the agreement has been placed on record in the office of the county clerk.

Under the agreement the old wooden dam which has come into a poor state of repair will be replaced by a modern concrete structure the crest of which under the agreement will be 46.5 feet above sea level. The cost of the erection of this dam will be borne equally by the two owners of the riparian rights on the Esopus at that point and under the agreement repair and maintenance in the future will be borne equally by the two owners of the water rights.

Through the signing of the agreement which defines what waters may be used under all circumstances by the Martin Cantine Company, it is probable that the waters which will be impounded back of the dam will be kept at high level, beautifying the surrounding country. This idea to keep the waters at a high level to prevent an unsightly appearance is one of the main objects of Mr. Cantine.

Approval for the construction of a concrete dam has been secured from the Water Power and Control Commission of the state of New York as of March 15, 1929.

Water Power Used for Many Years.

At the site of the present dam, which is of wooden construction, there has been a water power for many years. This power was originally used by the Ulster Iron Mills. The Ulster Lead Works and the Sheffield Paper Company and later by the Martin Cantine Company and the Diamond Mills Paper Co., Inc., which have succeeded the earlier companies to avail themselves of the water power of the Esopus creek at this point.

The original dam was erected in 1855 by Thomas Barclay and has been known as the Barclay Dam. The original dam was of wood and has once been rebuilt. Mr. Barclay was succeeded in the use of the water power by the various companies which have passed out of existence until at present the water rights of all of the companies have been acquired by the Cantine Company of the Diamond Mills.

The Cantine Mills is located on the north side of the creek, having acquired the old iron and lead mill rights, while the Diamond Mills are located on the south side of the creek, having acquired the old Sheffield rights. The Sheffield mills came into financial difficulties and A. R. L. Sheffield and Joseph B. Sheffield, as bondholders of the company, took title to the property and as holders of the bonds of the Sheffield Company had some rights to the water power holdings of the company as did Edwin Gould and George W. Thompson.

Agreement on Riparian Rights

On September 27, 1902, the parties interested in the riparian rights on the Esopus at that point made an agreement defining the rights of the parties as to the use of the water and under that agreement the water has since been used. Mr. Cantine acquired the Gould rights and the Diamond Paper Company succeeded to the rights of the Sheffield's so that at present the entire water power at Saugerties at the Barclay dam is owned by these two companies, an agreement was entered into and in this agreement the rights of the two parties are defined as well as the agreement to erect a new concrete dam.

For some time both companies have been using the water impounded by the old dam. The Diamond Mills use the water only for process work in connection with the manufacturing of their product while the Cantine mills use the water for manufacturing purposes and also at times for power although much of the time steam is used for power.

This right to use the water of the Esopus creek at Saugerties caused one of the big damage claims which faced the city of New York in the Ashokan proceedings. Under the riparian rights law action was brought by the users of the water for loss of waters impounded by the city. A commission was appointed of which Philip Eading of this city was a member and after hearing the

Laying 8-Inch Water Main in North Rondout

Water Board Piping Section That Never Before Was Supplied with City Water—Work on 8-Inch Pipe Line to Be Completed Shortly.

Superintendent Henry D. Darrow of the board of water commissioners of Kingston has a force of men busy laying an 8-inch pipe line in a section in North Rondout that had never before been supplied with city water. The pipe line is being laid in Ulster, Rock, Rondout and Kingston streets and also in Second avenue. At present the work of laying the new water main is about half completed.

Work is also progressing on the six-mile pipe line connecting Cooper Lake with Reservoir No. 2, and there is about a mile and a half of the line still to be laid. It is expected that the work will be completed by July. John H. Harrison, former superintendent of the water department, who is in charge of the work, has a force of about seventy-five men busy.

The stretch still uncompleted is between Woodstock and Bearsville and due to high water condition the work is progressing under difficulties as the trench in which the pipe is laid is filled with water. In order that the work may proceed it is necessary to keep pumps at work pumping the water out of the trench.

Various Cases In Police Court

Trouble Between Brothers-in-Law Led to Arrest of Joseph Bubolz by Frank Schelski—Hearing Adjourned—Other Cases Heard in Court.

Trouble between brothers-in-law who reside in adjoining houses on Jarrod street led to the arrest of Joseph Bubolz on Sunday morning by his brother-in-law, Frank Schelski, who charged Bubolz with assault in the third degree. The trouble was said to have started over a line fence. This morning the hearing was adjourned to June 3. At the same time Michael Bubolz, a brother of Joseph, was arrested, charged with public intoxication. This morning in police court Michael was fined $5 by Judge Shufeldt.

Fred Zabel, arrested Saturday on Snyder avenue by Officer Burger, who charged Zabel with public intoxication, was fined $5.

William "Spoke" O'Neil was arrested Saturday by Officers Fitzgerald and Welch on West Chestnut street, where residents had complained that O'Neil was annoying them by ringing door bells and trying to sell shoe strings. O'Neil was sentenced to 15 days in jail but the serving of the sentence was suspended, provided he left town during the day.

Oscar Nelson, arrested on North Front street, for loitering around with no visible means of support, was sentenced to 15 days in jail, and the serving of the sentence was suspended provided he left town.

Tornado Damage In New Hampshire

Berlin, N. H., May 6 (AP).—A tornado and thunderstorm which late yesterday swept suddenly up the Androscoggin River valley from the south caused damage estimated at $100,000 when it struck the business section of this city.

A two-story garage had its roof torn off, two three-story brick blocks were similarly with extensive damage to their interiors; the roof of the city hall was battered badly, as was that of a theatre, while the Steady block, a two-story wooden building, burst into flames immediately after the storm had passed and was destroyed.

Flashes of Life Sketched in Brief

(By The Associated Press)

Berlin—Official vital statistics show that on the average married persons live five years longer than the single folks.

New York—The most difficult career for a woman, in the opinion of Parker Thomas Moon, professor of international relations at Columbia university, is marriage. It is also the best and most satisfying.

Belgrade—King Alexander is godfather of the twenty-first child of Mrs. Alojza Betz of Schenck James, Slovenia. The king sent an aide-de-camp to the christening.

Angora—Marking another step in the emancipation of Turkish woman, the country now has the first bankrupt of that sex in history. Simet Hanem essayed to run a hotel and failed.

Toms River, N. J.—The Rev. Ira E. Hicks, Baptist, believes this town is afflicted with a sin. He expressed his view in a sermon in commenting on a new production of "Mim Cherry Blossom." "In one scene," said the clergyman, "50 American boys and girls come on the stage with their arms about each other and later they actually kiss." School board officials said the play has been a favorite with schools and colleges for 25 years.

Smyrna—In three months the traditional method of kneading dough with bare feet will be forbidden. Bakers have received orders from the prefect to use machinery.

Canton, N. Y.—There are jailbirds in Sing Sing that sing and sing. Canaries and other feathered songsters in the state prison are under the care of Charles E. Chapin, who is serving a life sentence for wife murder.

Brussels—Horse-drawn canal boats which have inspired many paintings seem destined to vanish. Caterpillar motor tractors are rapidly being installed to move the country's 10,000 barges on 1,000 miles of canals.

New York—Dick Douglas, Jr., 17, of Greensboro, N. C., is the envy of many another Boy Scout. He won big game in Africa with Max Johnson, now he is on route to Alaska to hunt grizzly bear and whale.

Majority Vote Favors Mellon

Washington, May 6 (AP).—A majority of the senate judiciary committee was enrolled today for the report of Senator Steiwer Republican of Oregon, declaring Andrew W. Mellon is legally holding the post of secretary of treasury. Senator Norris Democrat, Mississippi, who is absent, telegraphed his vote for the report.

The final vote on the Steiwer report stood 5 to 7 for it with one Democrat, Ashurst, Democrat, Arizona, not voting.

This report, along with those of Senator Norris and the independent reports of Senators Borah, Republican, Idaho; King, Utah, and Washington, Democrats, will be sent to the senate tomorrow, where the right of Mellon to hold the post of secretary of treasury will probably be thrashed out in the 20th century.

The report of Norris declaring Mellon by being a stockholder in various enterprises violated the law forbidding the secretary of treasury to be interested in any trade or commerce stood 12 to 4.

Parian Rights At Saugerties

Since an award was made. The interest was fixed at about $1,000 and the Diamond Mills at $1,000. Judge Howard set this aside and a new commission appointed of which Roscoe of this city was a member and the second hearing which because under the statute, the Diamond Mills were awarded about $90,000 of the Cantine award was $55,000.

Provisions of Agreement.

Under the agreement which has been placed on file the Martin Company under right No. 1, is to use of 3,000,000 gallons of water per day as a prior right for passing and manufacturing purposes unless there shall be sufficient water to satisfy the rights of the Diamond Mills. This water shall be taken from a point to the south of the center of the dam.

Under right No. 2, the Cantine company may take 500,000 gallons of water per day from the center line of the dam for processing purposes.

In addition to the right to take water for process purposes the Cantine company under right No. 3, may take for power purposes 137 1/2 cubic feet per second at the water wheel added the water is not drawn over than 6 inches below the crest of the dam. This water is drawn from north of the center of the dam.

Right No. 4, also provides that additional water for power purposes may be taken when there is sufficient water to fulfill right 1, 2 and 3 but is not to be taken advantage of if the water is more than one inch below the crest of the dam. This water is to be taken from south of the dam and permits the taking of water for power during highwater periods.

In the negotiations and drawing of the agreement the Martin Company was represented by W. Eckert of this city.

ELEANOR GUNN ON FASHIONS

Bags Are Pleasantly Related to the Costume.

New York—Quite naturally the related costume has affected the handbag, which is now not made merely of leather or silk, but of a wide variety of fabrics. There is the tweed handbag, so smart with the tailleur, and the linen handbag so appropriate for the linen ensemble. There are silks, and cottons, and straws and all manner of extraordinary materials from which to make a purse.

In shape they are almost as varied as in fabric, although extremes are tacitly avoided, the preferred size being medium. Pouch and other shapes attractively mounted on metal or jeweled frames, are rivalled by equally smart envelopes of water-snake, glazed kids or other types and fabrics not exclusive of old brocades or modern prints.

It is no new trick to match bag and shoes, but it is now done in such ornate materials that the idea strikes one with all the force of a newly launched fad. While leathers have been matched for winter shoes and paries, fabrics are now combined in gay colors and designs. Since fashion has taken to fastening herself together by means of bows instead of buttons, it is not extraordinary that bows should appear on bags. Their first appearance was in contrasting leathers in bow motif, but now summer hand bags actually are.

Evening bags have a fascinating

OUR DAILY PATTERN.

A Practical Under-Garment for Women of Mature Figure.

6442. The shaped shoulder is a desirable feature on this model. It has long waist portions, to which the skirt sections are joined, and these have plait fulness at the sides. The garment is fitted by underarm darts. Nainsook, crepe, crepe de chine, rayon or washable satin, as well as batiste and radium silk are suitable for this style.

The pattern is cut in 4 sizes: Small, 38-40; medium, 42-44; large, 46-48; extra large, 50-52 inches bust measure. To make the design for a medium size will require 2 1/2 yards of 36 inch material. The width of the garment at the lower edge with plait fulness extended is 48 inches.

A pattern of this illustration mailed to any address on receipt of 12c in coin or stamps by the Pattern Department, The Freeman, Kingston, N. Y. Be sure to state the size wanted.

"Jack and Jill" Dresses Are Made of Flour Bags

The old nursery rhyme doesn't say what kind of dresses Jack and Jill were on their famous water-carrying expedition, nor does it specify that they were twins. However, any little brother and sister under six years of age can safely be dressed alike whether or not they are actual twins. The little "Jack and Jill" dresses shown here are examples of what can be done in this way, without either of them sacrificing their personalities.

Empty Flour Bags Are Suitable for Children's Clothes.

And without sacrificing the family pocketbook, either. For both of these little dresses were actually made from used flour bags, the kind that come into the kitchen by way of the grocery boy or which can be bought over the bakery counter for a few cents apiece.

This material is so firm and closely woven and durable as to be especially suitable for children's clothes. The bags are quickly ripped and the stamping removed in any one of several ways, by covering with lard or kerosene for a few hours and then washing in warm water, or with Javelle water, or they may be sent to the general public laundry.

Flour bags take dye beautifully, especially in the darker shades such as navy blue or forest green. Used in combination with the natural material, the effect is charming.

In the dresses shown here, Jill's little box-plaited skirt and Jack's manish shorts are of the dark material, the blouses are natural colored, and the collar, cuffs and ties of the dark goods.

The number of flour bags required for making the two suits will, of course, depend on the ages of the children, but in any case, the cost will be negligible.

Leather, Tulle, Tweed Flowers, Adorn Frocks

Leather, principally suede, and occasionally printed in contrasting colors, seems to be one of the favorites of the Parisienne for her sports costume flowers. At recent indoor tennis matches a red and blue sports suit had a boutonniere of red and blue suede flowers, the round petals of the blue flowers having red shading and the red flowers blue shading.

Practically all of these flowers have natural looking stems.

Tweed flowers, brown and white flecked, backed and stiffened by brown suede forming a narrow binding to the petals, trimmed a Worth ensemble in brown tweed.

Tulle flowers, often stiffened with wires and velvet strips, are used as floral decorations on tulle evening gowns in the new collections of summer models. A large cluster of varicolored morning glories made of tulle and velvet trimmed a black evening gown. Patou has a stunning black tulle frock which has one shoulder strap and one side of the décolletage in the back outlined with large silk roses in a brilliant shade of cerise.

New Dinner Rings Add to Evening Costumes

Especially appropriate with the striking new evening costumes of this spring is the latest model in handsome dinner rings as was worn recently at a supper dance held at one of New York's famous Fifth avenue hotels.

Costume colors range themselves in to high tones, pastel tints, half-tones of tan or gray and black or white, and these rings are chosen as a distinct contrast for these gown color schemes.

This ring holds a large marquise diamond for the central gem with three trapezoid-shaped emeralds on either side. These emeralds are slanted for the ring shoulders, stepped down in angles to reach from the high central gem to the ring circle at the sides.

This use of baguettes or oddly shaped colored gems for the ring bezels and a large marquise, oblong, square or lozenge-cut diamond for the main stone, is a gesture toward the modern in new rings.

Market for Fruits And Vegetables

New York, May 6.—(State Department of Agriculture and Markets). New York wholesale prices for fresh Florida tomatoes today declined. Demand was fairly active, particularly for good quality stock. Six-basket carriers of 144 tomatoes, fancy pack, changed hands at $3.00-5.00. Choice pack of 180 tomatoes sold at $2.00-4.00. Last week New York city's tomato receipts from that state totaled 188 cars.

Lower prices prevailed on southern white cabbage. Supplies were more than sufficient to meet trade requirements. White varieties from South Carolina packed in one and one-half bushel hampers peddled out at 50c-1.00, rarely higher. Red cabbage was rather scarce and values tended upward. Sales were reported at $1.75-2.00.

Price changes were unimportant on western New York Baldwin apples. The market ruled steady with demand moderate. Early morning pier business was at $5.00-5.50 a barrel on U. S. Grade No. 1. 2½ inch fruit.

New York state this season has marketed 12,067 carloads of apples, against 9,750 for the same period one year ago.

Demand for strawberries was less active and prices were lower. Varieties from the Norfolk section of Virginia jobbed out at 6-18 cents a quart. Carolina offerings brought 8-18 cents.

Strawberry receipts last week amounted to 260 cars. Supplies were drawn from the Carolinas, Virginia, Louisiana and Florida.

Increased receipts of new crop potatoes from Florida weakened the market. Wholesale buying was moderate and sales on No. 1 Spaulding Rose were made at $7.00-7.25, occasionally $7.50, a barrel. On the other hand, the market on old crop potatoes was steady to firm, especially on fine quality offerings. New York upstate round white potatoes, in bulk, peddled out at $2.65-3.00 per 180 pounds.

Florida cucumber receipts were fairly liberal. Trading was liberal with the market without decided change. A volume of the sales on the fancy pack were reported at $1.50-2.50 per seven-eighths bushel hamper. The choice pack brought $1.00-1.75.

If They Had to Try It

I am tired of hearing our clever young men and girls say they would rather be living in the Eighteenth century. Like children, they imagine they would all have been fine ladies and gentlemen, Horace Walpoles and the like. It is more likely they would have been Spitalfields weavers, grenadiers with the lash waiting for them, footmen and maids sleeping in dark holes, ragged and starved ushers, some of Squire Western's oafs and slatterns. A day of what was ordinary life to the average man or woman in the Eighteenth century would probably reduce them to screaming imbecility. No, we move on, in spite of all our stupid people—and our clever people.—London Saturday Review.

Wizard of the Wires

"Almost every man can find work if he uses his brains," asserted one who had traveled a good deal—"that is, if he has the ability to adapt himself, like the piano tuner I once met in the west of America."

"Why," I said to him, for we were in a wild, unsettled country, "surely piano tuning can't be very lucrative here? I couldn't imagine that pianos were very plentiful in this region."

"No, they're not," said the piano tuner, "but I make a pretty fair income by tightening up barbed-wire fences!"—London Answers.

What a Nuisance----

No Hot Water

What a nuisance to grope your way, sleepily, down endless stairs, to light the "water heater" so that you can take a refreshing bath before breakfast! And of course you don't get hot water at once. You wait and wait and wait—what a nuisance!

Why don't you install a REX PATROL Gas Water Heater? It gets up in the morning before you do and has hot water ready.

It isn't expensive either, only $49.50 cash—or if you wish, you can purchase it at convenient terms.

See the complete installation at your nearest district office, and, if you wish further information, call and one of our salesmen will be glad to tell you more about this daily comfort and convenience.

Bishop Shipman Confirms Class

A class of eighteen candidates received the "laying on of hands," on Sunday, May 5, at St. John's Church, when the Right Rev. Herbert Shipman, D. D., performed the rite of confirmation at the 10:45 o'clock service.

A large congregation greeted the bishop, who, following the confirmation part of the service, gave the class and congregation a "talk."—for Bishop Shipman said he had long since given up preaching—that will go with them as an inspiration through life. He spoke to the candidates as "children," and begged of them to keep their hearts child-like no matter what their years might grow to be and then they would grow beautiful with added years, if they kept close to their heavenly Father. He reminded them that they had promised, to put it in simplest words, to give up what is wrong; to believe what is true and to have the courage to stand by the truth as God would give them to see it, and to do what is right. But they could not, no one could, keep such a promise unless they remembered "Our help is in the name of the Lord."

He urged them to hunt for, find and hold the spiritual things of life as the priceless treasures. He was not nearly as much interested in their gaining "self expression" as in their gaining within themselves the power, the strength, the wisdom of God whose Holy Spirit had come to them, and then giving expression to His life. Nor was it of importance to them what another did or might do with his or her life, remembering what Christ said to the disciple who asked what one of his fellows should receive as a reward of some action. "What is that to thee? Follow thou Me." Bishop Shipman said he would like to have each one so live that some day some child might ask of them as a child did of a man he knew, "Man, do you live with God?" And he closed in loving words, urging that each new child of God so live with his heavenly father that all should see that God was with them in their lives.

ACCORD.

Accord, May 6.—Mrs. Edward Davenport and her committee are planning a most delightful and satisfying supper as a feature of the "White Elephant" sale which the Home Bureau will hold on May 9, at the M. E. Church Hall.

The Rochester Men's Club had its regular monthly meeting last Thursday evening. It was the quarterly ladies' night and there was a fine attendance. About 135 suppers were served. The Men's Club adds much to the social spirit of the community.

The Kingston Y. M. C. A. is branching out into another line of activity which the town and country work. The Men's Club believes in this kind of work for young people and is cooperating with the Kingston committee in planning a program of "Y" work for this community.

The Far and Near Society did not have its regular meeting last Friday, but will have it instead next Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock at the church. At that time Mr. Gosselink will show a set of lantern slides of mission work in Arabia. Everyone is invited to attend and see these pictures. After the pictures the members of the Far and Near will serve refreshments.

A. J. Cornell, who has been ill with pneumonia, is improving.

Eye On Ohio
Governorship

Oxford, Ohio (AP)—William Emerson Harper, Miami University rector, will tell you who is to be Ohio's governor in 1933.

"I am," he would reply.

Harper has begun a nine-year campaign for the office and has studied subjects he considers necessary to a governor.

One hundred of his friends have received copies of a personal platform. During the intervening years they are intended to spread his qualifications, and when the aspirants go to the political post in 1933 Harper's "100 club" will direct his campaign.

The student's platform gives his slogan as "H" for Honesty, Harper and Happiness and adds that he is a descendant of the "fighting patriots"—the Harpers of history. Harper is a Republican.

MRS. ELSIE S. MINTON

Columbus, Ohio (AP)—Every time meals with enough variety to please a housewife frets about balancing the several palates of the family, she could give a thought to Mrs. Elsie Steiger Minton, of the Ohio State University faculty, who plans for thousands.

The housewife has one family to watch. Mrs. Minton, home economics teacher, who is nutrition adviser to student organizations, has more than 110 fraternities and sororities for which to plan appetizing, healthful and economical meals.

The post filed by Mrs. Minton was created when the Green letter organizations asked the university for aid in conducting their cuisine. It is a new thing in college service to students.

LABOR SAVING and EFFICIENCY

WHAT a contrast our modern life presents to the endless back-breaking days of our immediate forebears. And nowhere is this change more evident than in the ease and dispatch with which the modern home is managed. Electrical fittings simplify almost every housekeeping problem—well designed appliances and attractive kitchenware add to the efficient accomplishment of cooking. On first thought it may seem an extravagance to provide as many of these labor saving devices as the budget can be made to cover. But the saving in time, in strength, in the necessity to employ a large amount of outside help soon justify the expenditure. Open the doors of this new world—enjoy the countless benefits that modern science has placed at your disposal—you will find your time for sports and sociality increased amazingly.

THE ELECTRIC HOUSE WORKS WONDERS

One might almost say one only has to wish things done to have the housework done today. Still a lot of plugging to be done, but mostly with electric plugs—and so much easier in the homes where some or all these better, guaranteed electric helps are used.

4 Incorporations In Ulster County

Albany, May 6.—Stock companies incorporating in New York state last month were well scattered rather than confined to areas of large population. This was shown today in a report made public by Secretary of State Fitch, revealing that the 331 companies that incorporated last month outside of New York city were scattered over 45 counties, a rather wider area than in past months. In Ulster county, four companies, with a total capitalization of $92,000, incorporated last month.

NEW SEA CABLE TO BRING MESSAGES CLOSER TO STATES

Western Union Will Direct Present Wire and in Laying Other Shore Ends.

New York.—One of the most unusual expeditions in the annals of submarine cables is being undertaken by the Western Union cable ship Lord Kelvin in the Gulf of Mexico. The entire cable system of the Mexican Telegraph company, which is operated by the Western Union Telegraph company, is undergoing a complete rearrangement, according to an announcement made by officials of the company. Not only is the Lord Kelvin laying new shore ends of ocean cable at both Galveston and Vera Cruz, but a submarine cable which now terminates at Morgan City, La., will be diverted to terminate at Galveston.

The work will cost upward of half a million dollars, officials of the Western Union said. It will include the laying of new shore ends of the cable now running between Galveston and Vera Cruz. Probably the most unusual part of the expedition will be the recovering of a large part of the 1921 Morgan City-Vera Cruz cable. Although this cable has been in the ocean for almost eight years, the engineers expect to find it in perfect condition and will use it for other purposes.

Many cables have been laid in tropical seas, but it is seldom that cable is salvaged from the bottom of the ocean and it is infrequent for a cable to be diverted from one terminus to another.

Workmen "Mine" Swamp for Live Cedar Logs

Tuckahoe, N. J.—A rapidly diminishing race of men, known as "swamp miners," ply one of the world's strangest trades in wooded swamps and creeks of South Jersey—probing hundreds of feet for cedar logs buried 1,000 years.

The miners have become as interesting to scientists as the strange nature of their trade which they have devotedly followed for generations in the secluded villages near the Atlantic coast.

Like gold miners the "swampers" work "claims" in the swamps and creek beds which make that part of New Jersey a maze of waterways comparable to the English fen country. George H. Cook of Rutgers college, assistant state geologist, said one log one thousand years old was brought to the surface.

The "swamp miners" have found their trade very profitable, but it is said to necessitate hardiness, experience and skill. Standing in the cold, brackish water up to their waists, the miners push long iron spades into the mud where they think trees have fallen and then been submerged by the tides of the Atlantic ocean.

After locating a log, they loosen a chip and bring it to the surface. It is said the miners can tell by smelling it whether the log was blown down alive or fell over dead. Only the live logs can be used. After prying the logs loose from the ooze they shoot to the surface as rapidly and buoyant as a newly fallen tree.

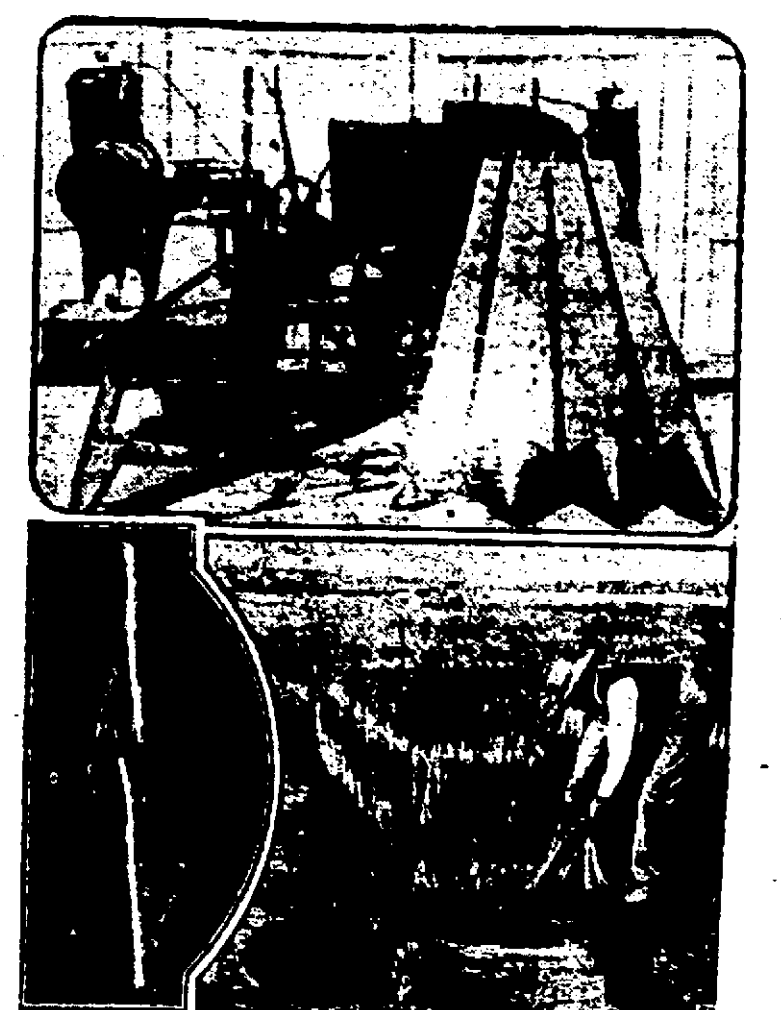

From these logs high-grade roofing shingles, cedar chests and other articles are made.

Too Much Dancing May Be Hard on Nerves

Chicago.—Dr. Edward C. Elliott of Purdue university told the North Central Association of Colleges that persons who frequent dance halls twice a week or more may be mentally deficient and nervous.

"Dancing is all right if carried on in moderation," said Doctor Elliott, "but those who habitually go to Saturday night and Sunday night dances are likely to lack inward growth. Besides they are generally nervous and edgy and want to be on the go all the time."

"There are two or three stars known to us which are believed to possess enormous densities," said Prof. A. S. Eddington in a lecture at the Institute of Mechanical Engineers in London. "The best known of these is the companion of Sirius. The density is found to be 60,000 times that of water. A ton of its material would go inside a match box."

Device That Measures

Temperature of Moon

Modern observatories are equipped with instruments whereby the temperature of the moon can be measured. The temperature of the moon depends upon the amount of heat it receives, the amount it reflects, and its rate of radiation. It is easy to measure with some approximation the amount of heat the earth receives from the moon, but it is not easy to determine what part is reflected and what part radiated. When the moon passes into the earth's shadow so that the direct rays of the sun are cut off, then all the heat received from the moon is that radiated and this can be measured, and from the amount received and the rate at which it decreases as the eclipse continues, it is possible to determine approximately the rate at which the moon loses heat by radiation, and from this the temperature to which it has been raised. Observations show that the amount of heat received from the moon diminishes very rapidly after it passes into the earth's shadow. This indicates that its radiation is very rapid.

Short "Sob Story" of Two-Wheeled Tragedy

The flames shot upward; the smoke curled in clouds around the doomed building.

Suddenly a young woman rushed up to one of the firemen.

"Oh," she cried, "save it for me! Save it!"

She pointed to a second floor window, and without a word the fireman rushed to do her bidding.

"How old was it?" asked one of the bystanders.

"Only a month!" sobbed the woman.

"And look!"—as the figure of the fireman could be seen coming down the ladder again. "He has failed! He's coming back without it! Oh, what shall I do?"

The fireman approached.

"I'm sorry," he said, "but I could find no child."

"Child?" cried the woman. "I said nothing about a child!"

"Then—what was it?" they asked her.

"It was my b-b-bicycle!" she sobbed.

"I'd only had it a month—on the installment plan, too!"—London Tit-Bits.

Little Journeys in Americana

By LESTER B. COLBY

America's First Newspaper

AMERICA'S first newspaper was short-lived. It was promptly suppressed by the government after the first issue on the ground that it contained "reflections of a very high nature."

The only edition ever issued was dated Thursday, September 23, 1609, and was called Public Occurrences Both Foreign and Domestic. Richard Pierce was the publisher and Benjamin Harris was employed to print it. Boston was the place of publication.

Pages were 7 by 11 inches. Three pages contained printed matter and the fourth was blank. Plans were formed to get it out monthly but the heavy hand of the government wrecked the project. Only one copy of the paper exists and that is in the Colonial state paper office of the British government in London.

Fourteen years later, on April 26, 1704, the first successful newspaper in the Western hemisphere was launched in Boston. It was printed by one B. Green, and the owner was John Campbell, postmaster. In the beginning it contained only two pages, 8 by 12 inches.

In the first number Campbell made a bid for advertising with the following notice:

"This News-Letter is to continue Weekly; and all persons who have any Houses, Lands, Tenements, Farms, Ships, Vessels, Goods, Wares or Merchandise, etc., to be sold or let; or Servants Runaway, or Goods Stole or Lost; may have the same inserted at a Reasonable Rate, from Twelve Pence to Five Shillings and not to exceed."

"Who may agree with John Campbell, Postmaster of Boston, all persons in Town or Country may have the News-Letter every Week, yearly, upon reasonable terms, agreeing with John Campbell, Postmaster for the same."

"B. Green," the printer, became owner of the publication in 1722 and after that his name blossomed into Bartholomew Green. The News-Letter was published continuously in Boston for 72 years and was the only paper printed there during the famous siege.

The Massachusetts Historical society has a partial file of the publication. In its early years it was crudely written with small regard for grammar, spelling or punctuation, and the printing was badly done. Its columns reveal that trading consisted largely of barter and that a condition of semi-slavery existed.

Servants were "bound out" and "indentured," imprisonment for debt was common and there was much poverty.

For many years it was believed that the first American publication was the English Mercury, presumed to have been published originally in 1588. Finally it was admitted that this publication was a hoax perpetrated by the second Lord Hardwicke.

Proof of this came along with evidence that the paper upon which it was printed came into existence long after the supposed time of its publication. Errors in historical data and mistakes in the timing of notable events of the period were other evidences offered to prove it a forgery. (St. Louis, Lester B. Colby.)

What Japanese Priest Saw in Coney Island

For ages the prosperity of temples and shrines in Japan has depended on the number of pilgrims. The more pilgrims, the more revenue, and, it should be explained, part of this revenue goes into the pockets of the priests and attendants. All this introduces the story of the chief priest of a famous temple near Tokyo, who, on traveling to New York several years ago, wanted to see Coney Island first of all. Some surprise was manifested by his American hosts but the priest explained, quite innocently, that his idea was to build up a great pleasure resort in the vicinity of his temple for the purpose of attracting pilgrims. And Americans marveled at such happy combining of religious business with pleasure.

"Tail" of Great Sacrifice at the Siege of Paris

When Sir Anthony Hope was a little boy he was struck with admiration of a lovely lady who had a large retriever dog—a beautiful animal, but with the merest stump of a tail. On inquiry, he was told that the dog, his master and mistress, had all been through the siege of Paris in 1871 and that when famine became acute a painful question arose that vitally concerned the dog. The dilemma was solved by chopping off the dog's tail, making soup from it and giving him the bone! Whereby all three were saved.

In relating this story in his "Memoirs and Notes," Mr. Hope says he hopes the tale is true because it is so picturesque, but adds that "the lady was vivacious."

Dante Discounted

Come Tollington tells of a lady who asked one of her domestics, after the latter had returned from church, what the preacher had said.

"Well, ma'am," was the reply, "I can't tell you all he said, but he did say that hell is not what it used to be."

Indian Relics in Germany

Europe's finest collection of material on the North American Indian is said to be that at Radebeul, Germany, near Dresden. It is a replica of a block house beside the home where lived Karl May, European writer of blood-and-thunder Wild West thrillers, says the Living Age. But, the magazine declares, the bulk of the collection of arrows, headstems, etc., was brought to Europe by Patty Frank, a Viennese who toured America with Buffalo Bill and other showmen as an acrobat.

Seven Run Rally In Seventh Inning When Seven Hits Are Collected Spells Defeat For Visitors—Clarke Smacks Out Three Safeties—Locals Outhit Losers, 10 to 8.

The game played by the Kingston High School varsity, Saturday at the Fair Grounds, was very loose but their hitting was timely and it was plenty good enough to beat Newburgh, 19 to 5 in a DUSO League game. Up until the seventh inning Kingston was holding the short end of a 5 to 3 score. It was in the lucky seventh, that Kingston pounded Travis for seven hits which resulted in seven runs. Travis was forced to leave the mound and Ankhien finished the inning.

It was a battle for hitting honors, it seemed, and out of the four pitchers who did mound work for the schools, Travis of the Hill City team was punished the most. The locals pounded him for their entire ten hits. One in the first, second, third and seven in the seventh totaled up Kingston's safeties. On the other hand, Burgevin kept the hits well scattered. The Newburgh men found him for seven singles and Thomas, who relieved Burgevin in the eighth, was hammered for a hit through the infield. Thomas, this little right hander, looked good. He has a fast ball and mixed in with his curves makes a good combination. Three out of eight men who faced him struck out.

Newburgh Scores
Arrotta, the first man to some to the plate fanned but Chumas wasn't turned away so easily. He hit a hot one past Merrill on third. Then Burgevin became a little unsteady for he walked Graham. Things looked bad now, two men on and only one out. At this stage one of the costly errors was committed. McDowell hit to Spevack at short. He fumbled it and was not even able to get the man going to second which resulted in everyone safe all around. The bases were filled, a hit meant two runs and Matthews duplicated the fact. He smacked one over second while Chumas and Graham trotted home. However this ended things up for Gamarco hit to third and was thrown out at first.

Kingston in their half of the first managed to get one of these runs back. "Bill" Merrill poked a beautiful triple out over the left fielder's head. It must have nearly taken the heart out of Travis to have the first man to face him pound out a three bagger. He steadied down some however and made Spevack hit to short for an easy infield out, but while Cullum was throwing him out at first Merrill went home.

In the second nothing eventful took place except, "Herb" Clarke's clean single to left went to naught. In the third Newburgh again brought another run across the plate. Chumas was walked and Merrill now committed one of his errors when he fumbled a fly. Cullum then hit a long sacrifice to right field on which Chumas scored. McDowell flied out to Jones. Matthews then smacked one through second base and Graham tried to make third. "Bill" Fuchsle picked up the liner out in center field and a nice throw to Merrill on third caught Matthews.

Kingston Ties Score.
"Bill" Fuchsle's hit was responsible for the two runs which crossed the plate in the third inning. Cullum's two errors in this stanza was the cause for the two men on base. Merrill and Spevack reached first on his fumble and wild throw. It looked as though they were going to be left on base for Jones flied out but Fuchsle used the stick in an effective way and two runs came in.

A few minutes later Fuchsle was caught off his guard on first when the pitcher threw the ball to Matthews who tagged him. This ended the inning and Kingston didn't do anything until the seventh. In the meantime Newburgh scored twice. Graham tallied on Cullum's hit in the fifth and in the seventh Newburgh's last run crossed the plate when Cullum threw wild to Merrill in an attempt to get Chumas going to third.

Big Seventh.
Kingston in their half of the seventh put the game in their bag. A shower of hits together with base stealing spell defeat for the Newburgh team. Clarke started things a rolling by banking one past third base. Burgevin fanned but Pretzsch, who took Balinsky's place in right field in the fifth, clouted out a double to right on which Clarke went to third. Merrill again did good work with the stick when he lifted a single to center on which Clarke and Pretzsch crossed the plate. Spevack sent a sizzling liner through the short stop's territory on which Merrill went to third. Jones then brought in two runs when he hit a two bagger to right. Merrill and Spevack scoring. Fuchsle was hit by the pitcher. Travis was growing unsteady now and to make things worse for him Tiano pounded a single to left on which Jones went home. Cullum lifted one out to left which landed in the hands of Graham. Clarke came to bat for the second time this inning and got his second hit of the inning down past third and Fuchsle scored. Tiano who was on third went home on a wild pitch and following this Pretzsch fanned to end the big seventh.

Nothing happened after this out-aside of a hit which Newburgh got in the eighth. In the ninth Thomas held them in fine style fanning two out of the three men which came to the plate.

Remarks.
Merrill made two errors but he redeemed himself by getting two hits and scoring three times. One of his hits was a triple.
"Herb" Clarke is right there when it comes to hitting the ball. He got three hits out of four trips to the plate.
Tiano took care of left field, playing that position like a big leaguer. He also got a hit.
This is Kingston's second DUSO League win.

Pan-Ams Beat Newburgh Team

Despite rainy weather that caused a little delay in the starting of the Pan-Am vs. Newburgh Cardinal game at the Saugerties road diamond Sunday, a goodly crowd turned out to see the oilmen score their second victory of the season, 7-3.

Johnny Celuch pitched seven innings for the Pan-Ams. He allowed four walks and struck out nine of the Cardinals. Walt Black relieved him in the eighth and allowed one run during his time on the mound. He fanned three men.

Two runs were scored by the Pan-Ams in the first inning, being brought in by Cragan and Lay. The oilmen got three more in the third inning and two in the eighth. Cragan's heavy blow in the eighth drove two men home.

RAIN PREVENTS TWO GAMES ON SUNDAY

Rain prevented the Blue Sox vs. Clermont tilt at Hasbrouck Park Sunday afternoon. Next Sunday the Sox are scheduled to tackle Red Hook at that place. The Koenigs Kandy Kids will do battle with the Sox at Hasbrouck Park on Sunday afternoon, May 13.

The Red Sox were unable to meet Tannersville Sunday afternoon at the mountain community owing to heavy rain throughout the day in that section. The Red Sox are scheduled to play at Olive Bridge next Sunday. Manager Bill MacDonnell requests that all Sox players be at the Dave Kantrowitz store tonight at 8 o'clock with their sweaters.

Poughkeepsie Wins.
Poughkeepsie High School won 2-2 Saturday afternoon in a DUSO League contest against Middletown High School at the latter's diamond.

Paris bartenders have organized an international association. They plan to exchange ideas with Americans, several of whom are members.

MANAGER MCGRAW SWEET ON GIANTS

If He Gets "Breaks" Will Surely Win Pennant.

Manager John J. McGraw, of the New York Giants, says he is satisfied with his team, runners up of last year and expects to win the pennant this season if he can get the "breaks."

"We have a much improved club," said Manager McGraw, "and I am very well satisfied with our prospects. If we get the 'breaks,' always necessary for success in baseball, I see no reason why we should not win."

"There is plenty of competition. I figure Chicago and Pittsburgh will be particularly hard to beat and other clubs, too, have improved."

"Our pitching staff is stronger. Some of our pitchers who were shy in experience have gained it and the work of the new ones has pleased me. The rest of the club has also improved. We had some players last year who were good and they are better now with a year's play behind them."

"Leach will help our club. Reese is very much improved. I expect him to continue to come until he is one of the really great players of the game. We have made satisfactory progress and on the whole I am very much encouraged. But, of course, we must have the breaks. A winning club is more apt to make them, and to win the championship we must be in position to take advantage of them."

Manager McGraw, for 27 years, manager of the Giants, and in recent years vice president as well, is baseball's most rigid disciplinarian. He is a living example of the ancient adage that anyone wishing to lead out who is the boss has only to start something to get the information. He insists that his players go to bed, or at least to their rooms, at an early hour, and they are out at a very respectable time in the morning. The Giants themselves believe that they will be home in front, and they are enthusiastic at the prospect of giving the manager his first pennant since 1924.

Thought He Had Reached the End of Mississippi

Peck Sharpe, who played for Milwaukee over 30 years ago, is the hero of another Joe Cantillon tale. Peck is still a great character and is still a great pal of Joe's. At present he is living in San Antonio, Texas.
"About 30 years ago, Peck was in a party with us that took a homeward trip down the Mississippi river," relates Cantillon. "We all took turns as lookout and one night when it was Peck's turn we ran ashore in a little bayou along the river. Seeing land ahead and land on two sides, Peck rushed into the cabin and woke up all by yelling, 'Come on, get up, we've reached the end of the river.'"

Alvarez Lost.
Rafael Alvarez, heavyweight boxer who is staying at the former Walk Miller camp at Eddyville, lost to George Neron Saturday night at the Olympic Club in New York city, where the two fought a six round semi-Ball to the George Hoffman-Low Barba 16-round feature. This was called a draw. The defeat suffered by Alvarez was the first since he entered the prize ring. He weighed 185 and Neron 196.

Koenigs Nose Out Rondout A. C. in 10-Inning Game

Losses Come From Behind and Tie Score With Two Runs in Ninth Only to Lose Out in an Extra Inning—Locals Outhit Winners, 12 to 9.

The Koenigs All-Stars nosed out the Rondout A. C. 5-4 Sunday in a 10-inning game that proved one of the best ever played at Block Park. The losers, who trailed the Kandy Kids 4-2 after the sixth inning, tallied two more runs in the last half of the ninth, trying the score and bringing about the extra period in which the Koenigs made their winning marker.

The Rondouts were the first to score. The Goltschmen got two runs in the last half of the first inning when Crispell walked, Stumpf got a free pass and Krom came through with a triple. This ended all Rondout scoring until the last half of the ninth, when the Seventh Ward team tied the score.

Koenig's first run came in the fifth inning. Carter doubled and Keegan singled, bringing him home.

The sixth proved another scoring session for the Kandy Kids. In this inning they collected three runs. Didzik and Wojcik walked, Lewis singled to fill the bases. Carter hit to Connelly, who threw low to second allowing the big boy to reach the sack while Didzik and Wojcik scored. Lewis trotted home when Keegan hit a slow grounder to second.

Trailing 4-2 at the outset of the ninth the Rondouts took their turn at bat in a determined manner and tied the score. Crispell walked, Stumpf flied out, Krom was out at first and then "Molly" Bill Leonard connected for a two bagger that scored Crispell. Connelly came through with a triple that drove Leonard home and deadlocked the score.

Then came the extra inning that gave the fans a big thrill. Wojcik went out. Lewis cracked one into the crowd along third base line and was allowed to sack according to ground rules. Carter struck out. Every Rondout roofer was on edges as Keegan stepped to the plate. The Kandy Kid hit to Leonard, whose throw to first was low, and Tommy Lewis raced home to set the Koenigs one run in the lead.

The Rondouts, who got two men in their half of the tenth inning, could not get up enough steam to send a man around the circuit and dropped the tilt by the one-run margin.

Joe Coughlin pitched eight innings for the Rondouts during which he struck out eight men and allowed seven hits. Joe gave two free passes. Peters relieved him in the ninth. He allowed two hits, two walks and struck out one man.

Dewey Van Buren hurled nine innings for the Koenigs. He allowed 11 hits, gave five walks and struck out four men. Lewis took his place in the tenth and allowed one hit, gave one walk and struck out one man.

Quiet Old Ceremony

The Blidworth Reeking, a centuries-old ceremony, is performed by the vicar of Blidworth in the parish church. Receiving a child from its mother's arm, the vicar dedicates its life to God's service. Then he places the baby in a cradle and rocks it gently several times. This quiet ceremony symbolizes the presentation of the child Jesus in the temple.—London Times.

Tagging Major League Bases

(By William J. Chipman)
Associated Press Sports Writer.

The first week-end of inter-league campaigning on the various Major League fronts left the Athletics at the head of their class in the American, with the Braves still imperceptibly clinging to the top in the National. The Mackmen defeated Sammy Gray and the Browns at Sportsman's Park yesterday by 2 to 0, admittedly not the easiest task that could be chosen to occupy an early May afternoon.

George Walberg let the Browns down with one hit and fanned six. He passed four men, however, and might have won his game snatched from the victory column if the home forces had done any hitting at all. It was the first defeat of the season for Gray, who gave only five hits before stepping aside for a pinch batsman in the eighth, George Blaeholder worked the final round for Dan Howley.

The A's won by bunting three hits in the fifth with one of Gray's two passes. The victory left the teams in a virtual tie for the leadership, but the Macks gained the top by reason of having won one fewer and lost one fewer than the Browns. The rumble of the Yankee heavy artillery once more is disturbing the peace and quiet of American League cities. The champions have registered thirty-nine hits in their last three games, and have won all of them. Three homers by Gehrig Saturday and one by Ruth Saturday and another yesterday paved the way for two Yankee victories over the White Sox, 11 to 9 and 8 to 3.

Waite Hoyt was derailed on Saturday for the first time this season, but George Pipgras yesterday gained the distinction of being the first Yankee pitcher other than Hoyt to go the route this spring. The Sox prodded Pipgras for ten hits, and George himself helped the opposition along with five passes, but he was strong in the pinches. Eleven White Sox were left stranded.

Washington still is unable to have a good hitting afternoon simultaneously with a first rate pitching exhibition by any member of the Senatorial staff. Adolph Liska, one of the best right handers in the major leagues, turned back the Indians with two hits yesterday, but saw his opponents win the game by 1 to 0.

Liska now has lost three straight, each by one run. He has worked a total of twenty odd innings with only four runs, earned and unearned, against his record.

The Tigers held a big rally at Navin Field yesterday at the expense of Ed Morris, who was routed with other Boston pitchers in a 10 to 2 victory.

The Cardinals are closing their series at the Polo Grounds today, and John McGraw still is hopeful that perhaps they will leave him the paint on the flagpole. After trailing the Clan McGraw by 10 to 7 in ten innings on Saturday, the champions came right back yesterday with a pair of late rallies which pulled a 9 to 7 victory.

The Sabbath triumph netted the Cardinals back into the tie for second with the Cubs, who had stolen a march by beating the Phillies twice on Saturday, but were forced to sit idly yesterday as the Cards threw the Giants. Burleigh Grimes led the Pirates to a 7 to 2 victory over the Braves at Boston, pulling the Back Bay band down within reaching distance of the Cubs and Cardinals.

Industrial League Opens Tonight On Athletic Field

Hercules-Silk Mills Contest Scheduled for 6:15 Tonight On Diamond In Central Part Of City—League Composed Of Seven Teams—Revised Schedule Since Withdrawal of U. & D. Nine.

This evening at 6:15 the Industrial League season will open at the Athletic Field. The Hercules and Silk Mills-Schillings will clash in the inaugural of the seven-team schedule for the championship of the circuit.

Ken Best is chalked up to do the throwing for the powder company men, while Jimmy Merritt probably will be on the mound for the weavers and furniture makers. This fact is expected to make the game a real interesting one for both players have had considerable practice this year while playing with teams of this vicinity.

The Industrial League will be made up of seven teams instead of eight as first announced, owing to the failure of the U. & D. to enter the circuit. It was anticipated that the railroaders would take a hand in the playing but up until Saturday the men could not be induced to sign up.

Following is the revised schedule since the withdrawal of the U. & D.:

Monday, 6, Hercules vs. K. & M-Schillings.

Catches Queen Bees By Strategy

Because of comparative scarcity the queen bee (center) commands a price that ranges from $1 to $5 in almost every country producing honey. A worker is shown at left and a drone at the right.

Valdosta, Ga. (P).—With queen bees selling for as much as $5 each and the whole world for a market, J. W. Sherman, South Georgia apiarist, has developed a way to deceive the creatures so that their capture is merely a matter of routine.

He manufactures a false honeycomb that is so perfectly constructed that even the queen doesn't recognize the deception and makes her way to the special cell that Sherman has devised as a trap. He never fails to lure the queen from any given comb section.

Sherman says the strategy makes it unnecessary for him to scrape around the whole hive, probably injuring and killing many bees in the search for their queen.

There never are many queens. Usually there is only one in a hive. When there are more they fight. A queen is hatched from the same kind of egg that hatches a worker or a drone. She becomes the queen only when, as a grub, the workers single her out for special feeding. The same food, given any other grub, would produce a queen bee. The workers feed only through grubs to keep the colony supplied with a queen.

The queen, mating only with the drone that flies as high, fast, and far as herself, has the entire responsibility of populating her colony. The workers do not produce eggs. Surplus drones, which neither collect food nor make honey, are stung to death by the workers.

Apiarists who breed queen bees for the market frequently take food from the comb in which a queen bee is being reared and place it in other sections, the deception encouraging the workers to feed several queens at the same time.

Make it a habit to follow the advertisements.

Every day there's a new edition of

The Passing Show!

The advertisements are more than reliable buying guides. Indications of quality they are, surely—for today no manufacturer can win lasting success by buying publicity for a cheap or shoddy product. Advertising weeds out the unfit. But more than that—advertisements are the fascinating daily record of progress in industry—of advances in the world of goods and services. And of such things you need to be fully informed—for you are the one who buy them.

Buy intelligently—with open eyes. Read the advertisements every day. Compare values... know what's new, what's better, and why. When you start out to spend your money—be informed!
